VISUAL ARTS DRAWING & PAINTING: 9 AM- 11 AM

How to prepare for the Audition/Workshop: Students should draw primarily from observation, drawing what is around them. Expanding your drawing with your own ideas is a helpful exercise to prepare for the audition, but the major emphasis will be on observation. Students will participate in a drawing workshop on the day of the audition. The drawing will be added to your portfolio at the end of the session.

How students will be evaluated: Students will be judged on technical skills, risk-taking, creativity and imagination by means of a submitted portfolio and the works created in the Visual Arts workshop. The workshop will allow students to demonstrate proficiency in the above-mentioned areas and support the work included in the portfolio.

What to bring to Audition/Workshop: Please bring a portfolio of your work using the guidelines below. Drawing materials for the workshop will be supplied.

Portfolio Guidelines: Painting & Drawing: Your portfolio should consist of your best 10-12 works and an optional sketchbook from the past 2 years. You may include drawings, paintings (on paper only), and other completed works primarily from observation and/or original ideas. Please edit your work and choose works that best show your technical skills, risk-taking, creativity and visual imagination. Please do not include images from popular culture, comic book or cartoon characters, or Japanese anime. Do not include paintings on stretchers, framed works, laptops, or slides. A sketchbook of original ideas can be included, but do not include sketchbooks of doodles.

Portfolio case – Painting and Drawing: All works must be in a 26" portfolio case (labeled with your name) that holds 18 x 24" work. There is no need to buy an expensive vinyl portfolio. An inexpensive paper portfolio is fine. Please do not place work in bags, envelopes, or include rolled work.
